Access to Cumulative Records

Students, and parents of students under the age of 18, who are in regular attendance at The Institute of Beauty and Wellness, have the right to inspect and review the student's educational, financial and attendance records to ensure they are accurate, factual and do not violate the student's privacy or other rights. Students and/or parents should schedule an appointment with the administrative team leader to review the student's records.

Student Information Release Policy

The Institute of Beauty and Wellness requires written authorization from a student, graduate or parent/guardian (in case of a minor) in order to release academic, attendance, enrollment status, financial and/or any other information to agencies, prospective employers, or any other party seeking information about the student unless the information is requested by an accrediting or other agency so authorized by law.
