

24 Weeks

Monday and Tuesday

10:00 am | 6:00 pm

Master's Training Program

Further your education and increase your technical skill in Cosmetology with The Institute of Beauty & Wellness' Master's Program. This 384-hour program will provide extensive hands on experience with cutting, dressing, color and texturizing. The program is designed to prepare you to meet the dynamic needs of the beauty industry by taking your skills to the next level through innovative hands on techniques.

Further your education and increase your technical skill in Cosmetology with The Institute of Beauty & Wellness' Master's Program. This 384-hour program will provide extensive hands on experience with cutting, dressing and color with industry leaders and our Creative Team

The class size is 8 students to 1 instructor, so you will be working directly with each of these world renowned artists. The program is designed to prepare you to meet the dynamic needs of the beauty industry by taking your skills to the next level through innovative hands on techniques.

The Master's Program at The Institute of Beauty & Wellness provides an edge in a competitive field, making you a sought after cosmetologist. The knowledge gained through the studies within the Master's Program will provide a deeper understanding of cosmetology, increasing the value you can offer clients, thus increasing your earning potential.